“JOY TO THE WHOLE WORLD,” SING NAPA VALLEY’S ANNUAL HOLIDAY CONCERT

Sing Napa Valley is preparing for the opening of our annual holiday concert, this year titled JOY TO THE WHOLE WORLD, featuring Joel Raney's cantata, “Let the Whole World Sing,” an arrangement of familiar holiday carols plus other joyous original songs. The balance of the program includes the songs “Jingle Bells Hallelujah Chorus” with the jingle bells lyrics set to the score of the Hallelujah Chorus and vice versa, “Lo, How a Rose/The Rose” a very moving arrangement of the classic English song combined with Bette Midler’s “The Rose,” “A Musicological Journey through the Twelve Days of Christmas,” “O Holy Night,” and more! The audience will also be invited to join the Chorus for a few carols. The program is designed to include both traditional and contemporary holiday songs and others in a variety of styles which are culturally inclusive and light-hearted!

Artistic Director Jan Lanterman & Sing Napa Valley's new Associate Director Townsend Losey will conduct the concert with joy in the spirit of the December holidays. This performance will be accompanied by Sing Napa Valley's new Collaborative Pianist Brian Shaw. The concert will be held on Sunday evening December 15, 2024, at 7:30 pm at Crosswalk Community Church, located at 2590 First Street at Freeway Drive in Napa. The public is cordially invited to attend and experience a variety of JOY-filled music. Tickets are $35 and available in advance through Sing Napa Valley’s website, www.singnapavalley.org or by texting joyworld to 41444.
